It's a world of our own

The student is the life and spirit of the school. The student . . . studies chemistry . . . plays football . . . attends skating parties . . . reads the Tomahawk Times . . . cheers during a pep meeting . . . takes notes in Humanities . . . participates in Earth Day . . . runs for sophomore class treasurer . . . sells candy for the junior class . . . wins a debate in speech meet . . . attends student council meetings . . . takes a biology test . . . has the lead in the Thespian play . . . helps in the office.

The student is a living part of Oceana High School. Without the student all classes and activities would be nonexistent. Through the student the school has been able to enlarge and change.

This yearbook portrays segments of student life as they happened. Reflect back and take pride in the part you played as a student in helping our school to be and to excel.

The student - life and spirit of the 70's

We look forward to the 70's as a decade of advancement in knowledge and continuing growth in scientific achievement.

The 70's will be a decade of learning for those who have graduated and a time of learning for those who will return to school to gain more knowledge.

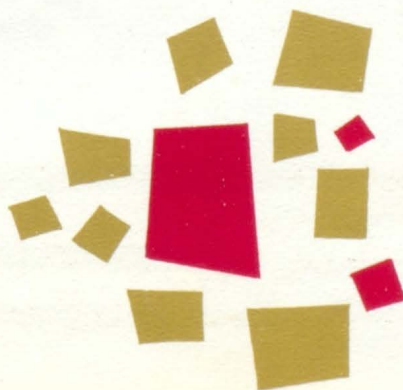

The world in the 70's will be what we make of it. If we want a better world, we must work for it. We must do our share to solve the problems of pollution, war, poverty, prejudice, and hatred.

Earth Day comes to Oceana High

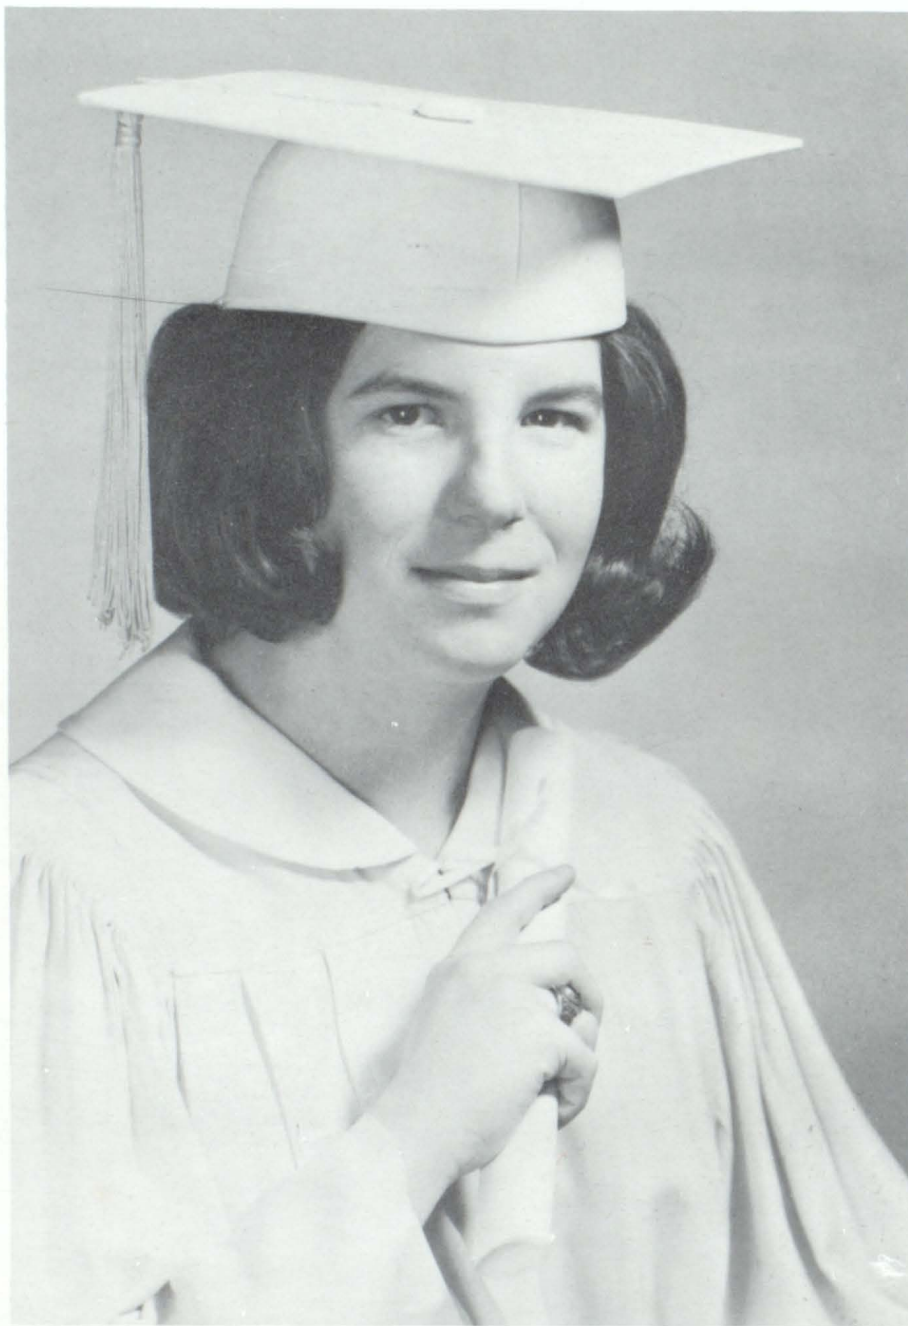

Future Homemakers Delores Cook and Cheryl Compton join the fight against pollution by posting a green and white striped flag symbolizing clean air, land, and water.

Cleaning up a stream on the school grounds was one of the many Earth Day activities. Linda Browning, Mark Conley, Steve Daniels, and Alvin Burke do their share of the work.

Many OHS students walked to school on Earth Day to call attention to air pollution caused by automobile exhaust.

Winning the top talent prize for the annual variety show is an old story for junior Sharon Walls, who took first place honors for the third year.

Students show talent in 'The News Tonite'

Bobby Ratliff and Mark Conley play with their band, Facts of Life, at the matinee to the enjoyment of the audience.

Majorettes won second place honors with a military routine. The majorettes have frequently received honors in the show.

Nine students were named to the All-State Chorus. First Row: Paula Hall, Martha Hopkins, Lisa Womack, and Sharon Walls. Second Row: Bobby Cook, Ricky Aliff, Keith Kennedy, Billy O'Neal, and Mark Boshell.

It was a year of achievement

Future Homemakers who attended the State FHA Convention held at Cedar Lakes April 24-26 are Mrs. Virginia Smith, club sponsor; Paula Hall, president; Norene Testerman, Sandra Gibson, and Debbie Meredith. The group gave the devotional at the Saturday evening session and Debbie sang in the all-state FHA chorus.

Mrs. Lillian Cook discusses analysis problem with Betty Powell, delegate to the Engineer Week Banquet.

in many fields

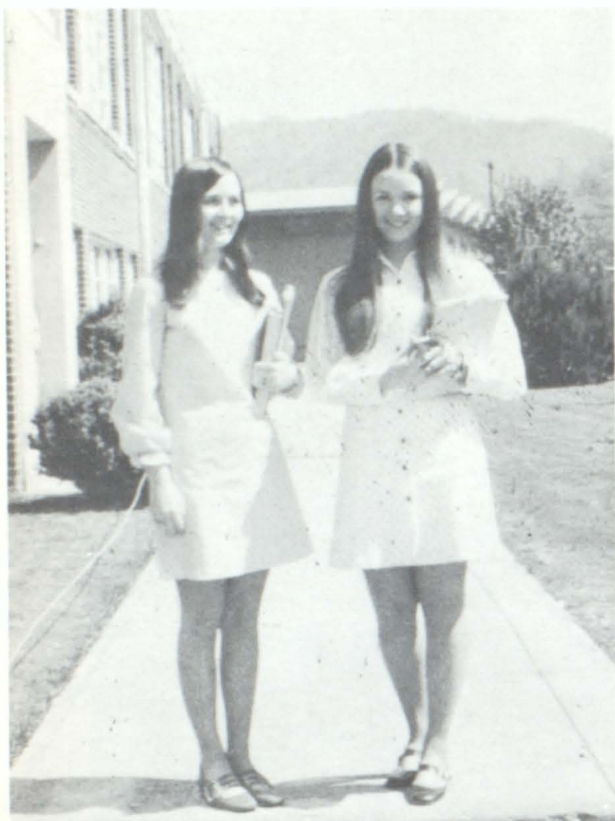

Senior Sandra Gibson won third place state honors in the essay contest sponsored by the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped. She also received the Crisco Award for Home Economics.

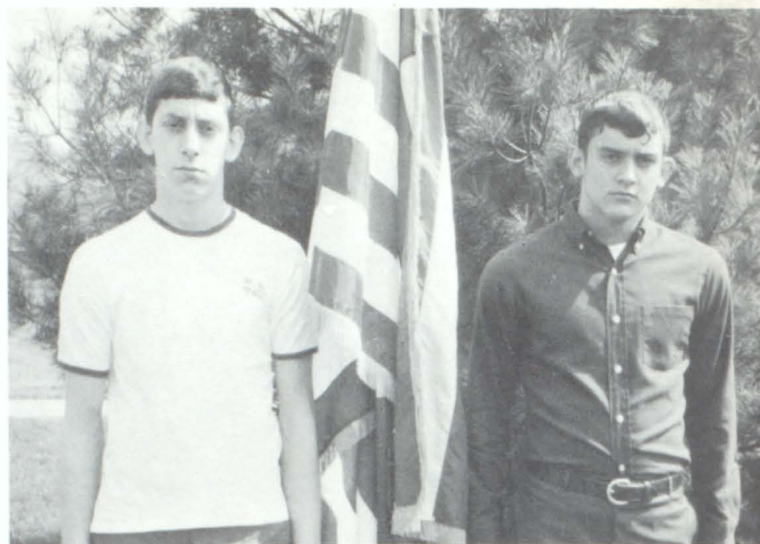

Mr. Lonnie Tilley discusses Government Day with junior delegates Cindy Cook and Eddie Basconi, who saw legislature in action.

Delores Cook won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award.

Good citizenship paid off for juniors Mary Taylor and Susan Dillon, who traveled to Jackson's Mill in June to represent OHS as Girls' State delegates.

Boys' State alternate Eddie Basconi and David Branham, delegate, represented Oceana at the citizenship camp at Jackson's Mill.

Achievement

Tim Stewart and Darlene Bailey represented the senior class in the annual Beckley Elks' Leadership contest.

All-Area Band honors were won by Kathy Lusk, Mary Ann Meador, Madonna Hager, and Becky Mack. Second Row: Libby Lambert, Denise Martin, Kathy Queen, and Susan Dillon. Third Row: David McCoy, Frankie Canterbury, and Kenny Bowles. Fourth Row: Mike Rotenbury, Frankie Mack, and Tootie Proffit.

Eileen Reed received the DAR Citizen Award.

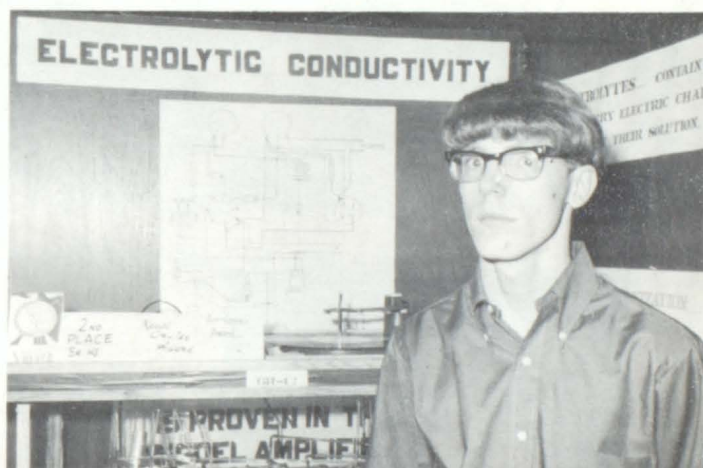

UN Youth Pilgrimage delegates were Kathy Justice and Sharon Walls. The girls visited New York City and attended a session of the UN Assembly.

Junior Paula Hall was accepted as a 1970 member of the European Study Program and Concert Tour of the All-Student Groups.

Speech team members who traveled to Morgantown to compete in the State Forensic Meet were Madonna Hager, Sandra Gibson, alternate Rodney Topping, Joan Perry, and Debbie Jane Cook. Joan won first place honors in the Ninth District Voice of Democracy Contest.

Jimmy Belcher won an all-expense paid ocean cruise for one week with his science project, "Electrolytic Conductivity." He received this prize for having the best Naval Science project for grades 10-12.

Seniors Patricia Cook and Tommy Pendry represented their class in the "Most Valuable Students" contest.

Music for "The Impossible Dream" was provided by a rock group from Matoaka, the Fugitives.

"The Impossible Dream" becomes a reality for Debbie Cable, Keith Testerman, Judy Price, and Johnny Scott as prom magic takes over.

Tears appear as Queen Anita waltzes to the music of the Fugitives.

'The Impossible Dream' comes true

Prom Court was honored at the junior-senior prom, "The Impossible Dream." Members of the court are Tim Stewart, Debbie Whitten, Larry Huffman, Charlotte Hurley, Queen Anita Keeney, Dennis Asbury, Kathy Lusk, Erwin Gregory, Paula Lecco, and Raymond Walker.

Adding charm to the atmosphere of the junior-senior prom were sophomore serving girls Darlene Hurley, Nancy Fletcher, Lynn Doak, Mary Brown, Cheryl Aliff, Rhonda Daniels, Teresa Cook, and Debbie Smith. The girls were kept busy during the evening.

Anything for a souvenir! Debbie Wesley proves this by wading the fountain to get a water lily as a memento of her first prom.

Sharon Walls sang "The Impossible Dream" to honor Queen Anita Keeney.

FACULTY

Principal Vernon L. Short prepares to announce a change in the day's schedule during the afternoon homeroom period.

Principal chalks up year of achievement

An improvement here, a bit of equipment there—and before you know it, many departments at Oceana High take on a new look and provide new opportunities.

Behind it all is Principal Vernon L. Short who has worked closely with faculty members and students to make Oceana High a better place to be and to surpass last year's extensive achievements.

All facets of school life were considered by Mr. Short and his assistants in order to assure the best possible program for each student and to provide help throughout the year for students and faculty alike.

Much of the credit for the successful school year is due the principal and his capable assistants who have worked untiringly to improve Oceana High.

Assistant Principal Ira Cook helps solve the many problems in providing quality education for seven hundred students. Mr. Cook also teaches Civilization and American History.

Solving problems is their business

Marcella Williamson named top journalist in state competition

Marcella Williamson traveled to Dallas, Texas, in June where she was honored by the American Academy of Achievement. Marcella was named top state journalist by the Journalism Education Association and was a guest at the 1970 Banquet of the Golden Plate. She spent a weekend in Dallas as a part of the Salute to Excellence program of the American Academy of Achievement.

Marcella won top state honors on the basis of her work over the past two years on the Times and yearbook. She submitted a stringbook for judging. It included samples of published news and feature stories, editorials, advertising, page layout, and totals for advertising.

As state winner, Marcella received a Golden Scroll from the American Academy of Achievement and the Journalism Education Association. Her all-expense paid trip was provided by U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers, Inc.

Editor Marcella Williamson completes work on the yearbook before leaving for Dallas, Texas, to represent West Virginia in national high school journalism competition.

Mr. Ned Crews, a journalism teacher at the Parkersburg branch of West Virginia University, was guest speaker at the Quill and Scroll banquet.

Mr. Robert Dillon, who was made an honorary member of the yearbook and newspaper staffs, shows off his certificate to Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Phillip Roach, following the annual Quill and Scroll banquet.

"A Lion Will Roar," an original Civil War drama based on a Southern girl's desire for revenge for the destruction of her way of life, was a production of the Thespian Society. Surrounding Denise Martin, who played the role of the Southern girl, are masked actors Rodney Topping, Debbie Jane Cook, Ricky Walker, Charlotte Hurley, and Joan Perry. At front is Paula Hall, who sang ballads of the era. The play was written by Paul R. Blankenship, Thespian sponsor and speech teacher.

'A Lion Will Roar' gets

Miss Beaumont realizes that she can do nothing to destroy the memory of Abraham Lincoln. In this role, Denise Martin won all-state dramatic honors.

Mr. Blankenship designs the set for his original drama which won top rating at the state drama festival in Morgantown.

Thespians present 'To Burn a Witch'

"To Burn a Witch," a drama set in Salem, Massachusetts in 1683 was among Thespian productions.

Two young girls, who are accused of witchcraft by two elderly fanatics, are to be put to death. The setting is a prison cell.

The play was directed by Madonna Hager with a stage crew of Pat Cook, Charlotte Moore, Frankie Mack, Connie Nottingham, and Jo Ann Judy. Three performances were given.

Colleen Toler pleads for her life as Mary Arnold tries to reassure her in "To Burn A Witch." Debbie Gilliland and Judy Brooks are determined that the two accused of witchcraft will burn at the stake.

Third Row: Eddie Fox, Grady Martin, Tim Stewart, Duke Gibson, Will Stewart, David Brown, Roger Skaggs, Stacy Keys, Wilson Rice, and David Branham.

Papooses show promise

The Oceana Papooses ended the 1969 football campaign with a 2-5 record.

The Papooses won victories over Baileysville, 42-0, and Wharton, 24-8. They dropped their games to undefeated Man, 36-6, and two games to Pineville with scores of 6-0 and 20-14. The team bowed to Mullens, 20-6, and Park of Beckley, 36-6.

Scoring was led by Ronnie Miller, fullback for the Papooses. Miller accounted for nine touchdowns during the season.

Going into huddle at the 50-yard line, Coach Gene Gilliland and Elwood Pennington check junior high football statistics.

Cheerleaders have pep to spare

Part of the fun of being a junior high cheerleader is riding in the Homecoming parade. Connie Rollins, Carol Griffith, Debbie Walker, Carol Justice, and Sue Willard enjoy their ride with Dewayne Brown in the annual Homecoming festivities.

Under the leadership of Tim Stewart, the Indians surprised several strong teams. Standing are Jack Repass, Steve Goodwin, Jim Hopkins, Ricky Whitten, John Cook, Henry Cook, Will Stewart, John Maynard, Eddie Fox, Grady Martin, and George Spolarich.

Indians stun Pineville in tourney

Oceana varsity hoopsters finished the 1969-70 basketball campaign with an 11-11 record.

The small but determined Indians managed to surprise several opponents with their strong defensive attack.

The tribe was forced to shoot outside because of the lack of height.

The highlight of the year was upsetting highly favored Pineville 58-52 in the unpredictable Wyoming County AA Basketball Tournament.

The stunning victory over the veteran crew was accredited to Grady Martin, who guarded Butch Downs, the Minutemen's leading scorer. Martin limited Downs to 4 points. The long range shooting of Tim Stewart, Jim Hopkins, and Jack Repass was the fatal blow to last year's state runner-up team which was favored to repeat.

In season action the Indians almost scalped the new state champion, Mullens, in a thrilling overtime.

The tribe split games with all triple-A clubs.

Graduating players include George Spolarich, John Cook, John Maynard, Tim Stewart, and Eddie Fox.

Returning players are Jim Hopkins, Grady Martin, Jack Repass, Will Stewart, Rick Whitten, Steve Goodwin, and Henry Cook.

The problems of height will be eased when Ronnie Miller and Eugene Dishmon compete for varsity positions.

Junior varsity has 13-7 record

Oceana junior varsity wrapped up a successful season this year with a 13-7 record. The hoopsters won over Marsh Fork, twice; Trap Hill, twice; Man, twice; Big Creek, twice; Shady Springs, twice; Pineville, Hinton, and Madison. The team dropped games to Mullens, Pineville, Gary, Man, and Welch.

The team progressed throughout the season and shows promise for next year. Scoring was led by Will Stewart.

Busy managers Bill Harless, Kevin Roach, and Jay Bee Lester show their pride in the hustling varsity and junior varsity teams.

Jackie Repass pumps in a long shot for the Indians against Pineville. Repass scored 13 points in the tourney upset.

Tim Stewart scores against a tall Minuteman at Pineville.

Winding up a successful season the Oceana Papooses captured top honors in the Pineville Junior High Invitational Tourney after being county runner-up. First Row: Sam Hall, Freddie Brunty, Jeff Davis, Eddie Kanott, and Mickey Sizemore. Second Row: Pete Short, Mike Toler, Randy Short, Eugene Dishmon, Ronnie Miller, Richard Philyaw, Cecil Queen, and Coach Gene Gilliland.

Papooses take Pineville Invitational

"This year's team was one of the best I've ever coached," said junior high basketball coach Gene Gilliland.

The Oceana Papooses closed out the season with a 17-3 record, losing only to Pineville and Park of Beckley.

The Papooses averaged 52.6 points per game during the season, while holding their opponents to a mere 42.4.

The balanced scoring was led by Ronnie Miller with a 16-point average. Eugene Dishmon averaged 13 points per game, and Mike Toler, 8 points. Starting guard Pete Short was sidelined with an injury which put him out of action. Other starters included Eddie Kanott and Randy Short.

This year's team operated with 6-2 Miller and 6-3 Dishmon at double pivot position.

The little Indians won the Pineville Invitational by downing Pineville 44-39. Prior to the Invitational, Oceana was nosed out by Pineville 48-55 in the Wyoming County junior high tournament. In season competition, the two teams split games.

Admiring the trophy which they helped to win at the Pineville Invitational and the county runner-up trophy, are players Ronnie Miller, Eugene Dishmon, and Mike Toler. The three boys were named to the All-Invitational team. Miller and Dishmon were also named to the All-County.

Tip off time finds Ronnie Miller jumping against Pineville in the county tournament finals. Other Papooses all set for action are Mike Toler, Mickey Sizemore, Eugene Dishmon, and Randy Short.

Oceana cindermen qualified fourteen individuals and two relay teams for state competition by winning the Regional Meet at Concord College.

The Indians chalked up six first-place wins, five second-place wins, and five third-place wins.

Boys winning first place at Athens were Gary Philpot, 440 run; Tim Stewart, 880 run; George Spolarich, 120 high hurdles; Tim Stewart, 180 low hurdles; Tim Stewart, high jump; and Jimmy Shadrick, pole vault.

The tracksters won the regional, finishing with 88 points after winning the Wyoming County Track Meet by scoring 100½ points. The tribe also won their own Invitational.

Boys who represented Oceana in the State Meet were Dally Maynard, George Spolarich, Steve Bevins, Tim Stewart, Gary Philpot, Raymond Walker, Doug Trull, Stacy Keys, Chester Osborne, Tom White, David Branham, Will Stewart, and Ricky Anderson.

Leading the Indians in the State Meet was Dally Maynard, who threw the discus 135'9" to win first place. George Spolarich captured fifth place slot in the 120 high hurdles.

Graduating cindermen are Tim Stewart, Jim Shadrick, Steve Bevins, Dalley Maynard, Rodney Topping, David Brown, George Spolarich, Raymond Walker, and Chester Osborne.

Maynard captures State AA honors in discus throw

Dalley Maynard, the ace for the tribe in track, captured first place by throwing the discus 135'9" in the State Track Meet held in Charleston.

Maynard, who led the Indians in the field events, set new discus records in the Coalfield Conference, Beckley Jaycees, Oceana Invitational, and county meets. He finished first in the discus in all track meets in which the Indians competed this year.

The 6-0, 200-pound Maynard stated after winning state honors that he had achieved a goal he set when he went out for track.

Maynard also set a new Oceana High shot put record by tossing the twelve-pound iron 46'6" in the county meet this year. Maynard is the third Indian trackman to win top state honors. Last year Tim Stewart won the half-mile and in 1968, his brother Tom won the mile.

Dalley Maynard winds up to do his thing with the discus. He won first place in this event in every track meet he entered.

Flying over the hurdles are George Spolarich, Raymond Walker, and Ricky Anderson as they warm up for the county meet. Breaking the Oceana High 120 high hurdles record in the state meet, Spolarich finished fifth in the event. He also established a new Oceana Invitational record on the 120 high hurdles and was a member of the shuttle hurdle relay team which qualified for state competition in the regional meet.

Junior Stacy Keys throws the discus at the Wyoming County track meet. Keys will return next year.

Raymond Walker goes nip and tuck against Jerry Goode of Pineville in the high hurdles at the county meet.

Up, up, and away goes the tribe's pole vaulter Jim Shadrick. He established a new Oceana High pole vaulting record by jumping 11 feet.

Cindermen set new records

Tim Stewart places in the high jump in the county track meet. He also set a county record in the 880.

Papooses won their own Invitational, finished fourth in the Park Invitational, and placed eighth in the Beckley Invitational. They were nosed out in the county track meet. First Row: Mickey Sizemore, Eddie Stewart, Steve Stanley, Freddie Bragg, Cecil Queen, Sammy Hall, Ricky Bowles, Allen Couch, and Steve Gregory. Second Row: Coach Gene Gilliland, Mike Toler, Wayne Basconi, Randy Short, Craig St. Clair, Ronnie Miller, Ricky Philyaw, Ricky Walker, Guy Bailey, and Thomas Stark.

Papooses win Oceana Invitational

Ronnie Miller wins the high jump at the county meet. Miller set new records in the high jump, 440, and 70-yard high hurdles, to set the pace for the Papooses.

Mike Toler takes first place in the broad jump at the county meet, setting a new record of 19' 4½".

Morgan, Gary Bostic, Corky Shannon, Bill Harless, Paul Bailey, and Kevin Roach captured first place honors in the Oceana invitational golf match. The team finished with a 19-7 record. The team went to the regionals and finished in ninth place.

Athletes of the year were Ronnie Miller, junior high, and Tim Stewart, varsity. They were presented awards for football, basketball, and track by Coach Paul Greer and Coach John Beckelheimer.

Indian dance or prayer for victory? No, it's just the annual basketball battle between the senior class and the Oceana faculty members.

SENIORS

Leading class activities were senior officers Glenna Sizemore, treasurer; Debbie Kay Cook, secretary; and Nina Gail Pendry, president.

Seniors achieve honors

Many members of the Class of 1970 received awards in various fields.

Joan Perry won first place in the district Voice of Democracy contest. Sandra Gibson won third place in the state with her essay on employment of the handicapped. Joan Perry, Sandra Gibson, Madonna Hager, and Debbie Jane Cook qualified for the state speech meet. Jimmy Belcher won an ocean cruise for his science project, "Electrolytic Conductivity". Marcella Williamson was named State Champion High School Journalist. Dalley Maynard captured State AA discus honors in track. Tim Stewart won first place state honors in 1969 for the half-mile.

But the senior class got off to a bad start in their freshman year. A lot of hard work went into that first Homecoming float, and great disappointment came when this float was disqualified.

In their sophomore year, the seniors worked again on a Homecoming float, this time receiving third place for their time and effort. A cook-out, swimming party, and skating party were also held during 1967-68.

Homecoming came again and the class took great pride in their first place float. But something bigger was coming up. Their prom, "A Reverie of Roses," was a great success.

Seniors at last, the class of 1970 again won first place float honors. No hard work went into the prom this year, because the juniors honored the seniors with "The Impossible Dream." Afterward the annual senior party was a success.

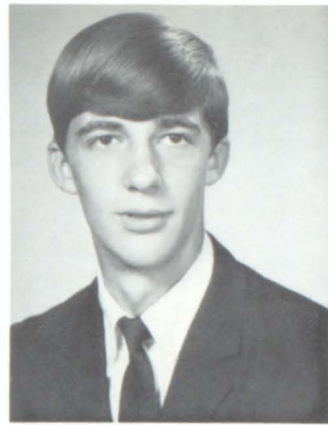

Baccalaureate and commencement are the most memorable moments of any high school graduate, but the outing at Stephens Lake on the last day of school will always be remembered.

COMMENCEMENT

After four years of anticipation,

Jimmy Belcher makes last minute check of the Statue of Liberty which he painted for commencement setting.

Tardy arrival for the diploma march was Diana Hesse who was helped by Madonna Hager to get ready to take her place in line.

Final briefing from their sponsor gets close attention of Jimmy Shadrick, Steve Milam, Larry Huffman, and Tommy Dyke.

Dr. Ross M. Evans of the Beckley Temple United Methodist Church gave the annual senior sermon. With him are class sponsors Robert Knight, and Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Barrett.

seniors prepare for the big moment

"Some day I'll be a senior," a young friend tells Joe Paynter at baccalaureate as he tries on Joe's cap for size.

Chatting on the front lawn, Tommy Dyke and Larry Huffman wait for final call to don their gowns.

Beating the heat, Sharon Lester arrives wearing a cool outfit.

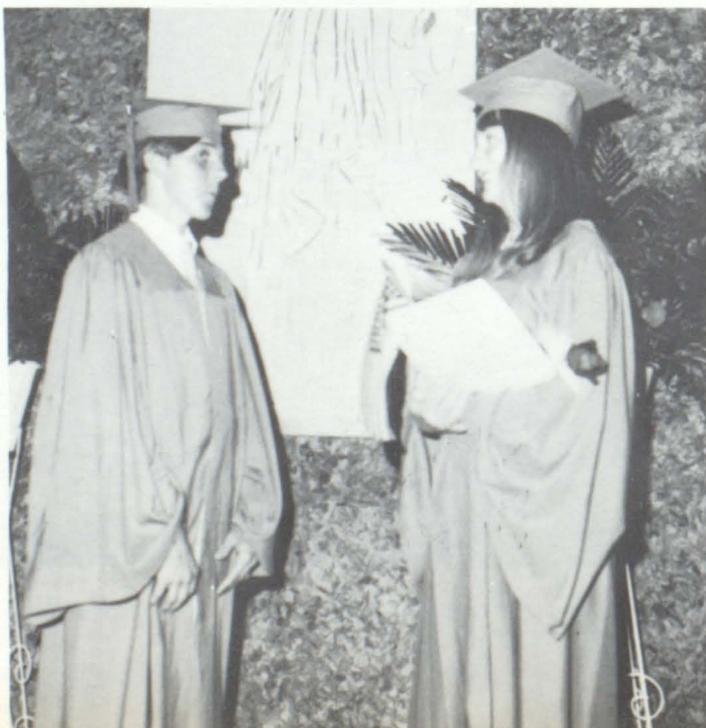

Sisters Sandra and Marsha Stafford and Cathy Daniels add beauty to the scene as they arrive in formals to sing with the chorus.

Class speakers at commencement exercises were scholastic leaders Betty Powell, salutatorian; Darlene Bailey, valedictorian; and Delores Cook, honorarian.

Seniors receive awards

David Harless and Eileen Reed received awards from the American Legion. The awards were presented for top citizenship.

Marcella Williamson received a Golden Scroll. She was named "West Virginia State Champion Journalist of 1970."

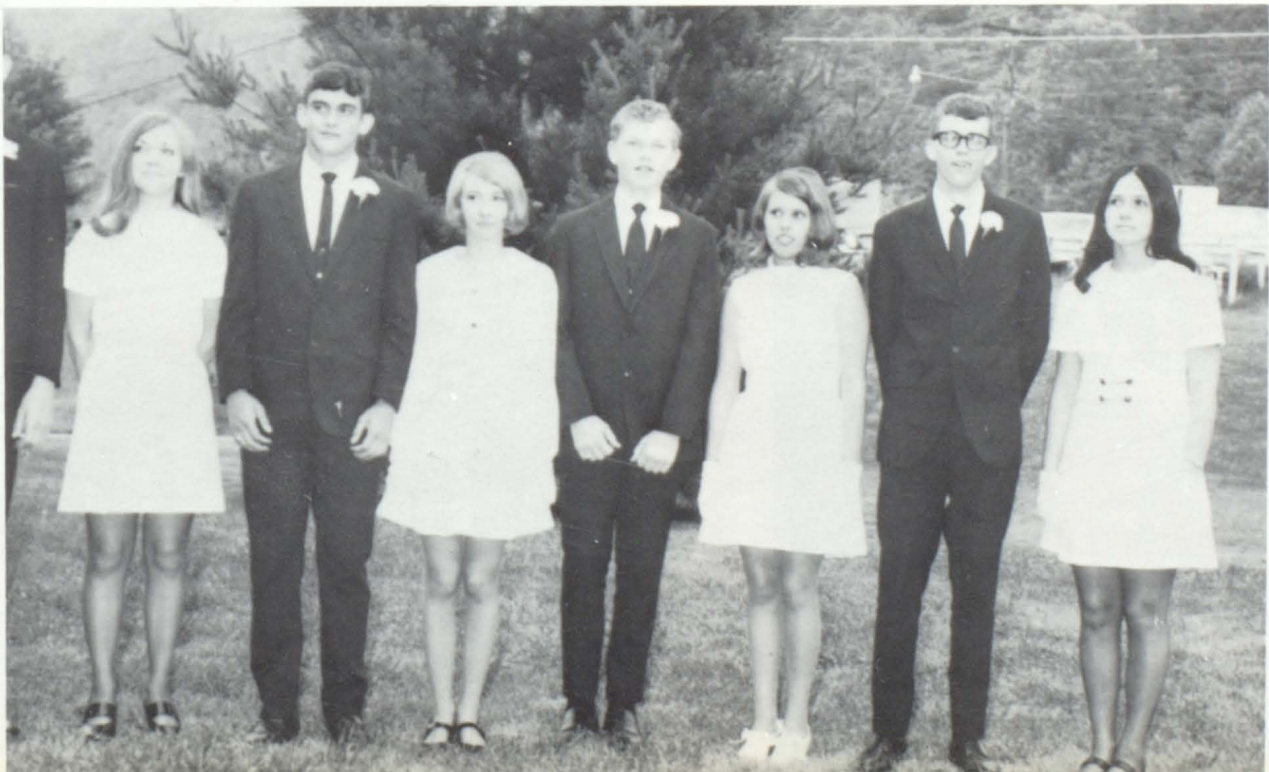

Junior ushers ready to distribute commencement programs are Jeanette Bowman, Rhenetta Blackburn, and Patti Lewis.

Principal Vernon Short and Mr. Leon Childress, president of the Board of Education, receive boutonnieres from Mrs. Maxine Barrett.

Taking time out are these members of the junior honor guard chosen from the National Honor Society. In the group are Sandra Hamilton, David Branham, Neva Forren, Johnny Rolinns, Jeanette Bowman, Mike Cook, and Mary Taylor.

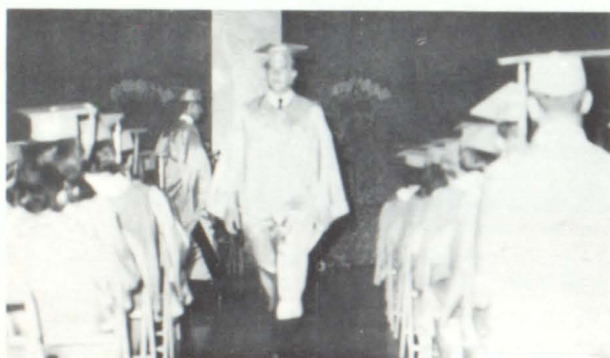

Gayle Varney and Dalley Maynard march under the approving eye of sponsor, Mrs. Maxine Barrett.

Sharon Brunty and Steve Bevins join the commencement march.

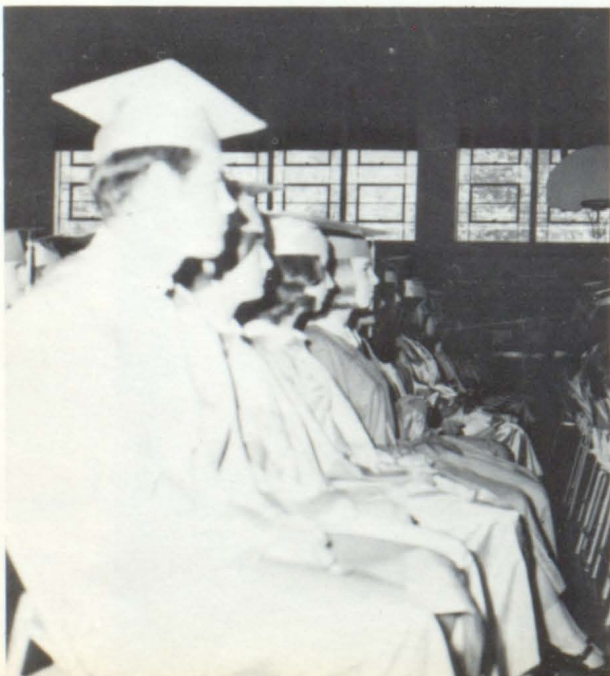

It's a solemn moment for marching seniors Dennis Bennett, Madonna Hager, Sally Gillespie, and Ricky Aliff.

At last! Dalley Maynard returns to his seat after receiving that all-important high school diploma.

Seniors await the presentation of class awards.

Who will build his future in West Virginia?

He can put up a treehouse himself. But building his future in West Virginia is something else. He'll need help. We can do this best by creating opportunities for a full and productive life here.

Hope Gas works hard to attract new industries . . . cooperating with state and local agencies to develop the potential of West Virginia. We at Hope think that young people are one of our most important natural resources.

Section editors for the Oceanian were Debbie Kay Cook, highlights; Judy Brooks, seniors; Jeanette Cook, faculty; and Sue Linkous, sophomores.

For the second year, Linda Morgan served as yearbook business manager.

Danny Thacker and Mark Boshell work on the freshman class layout.

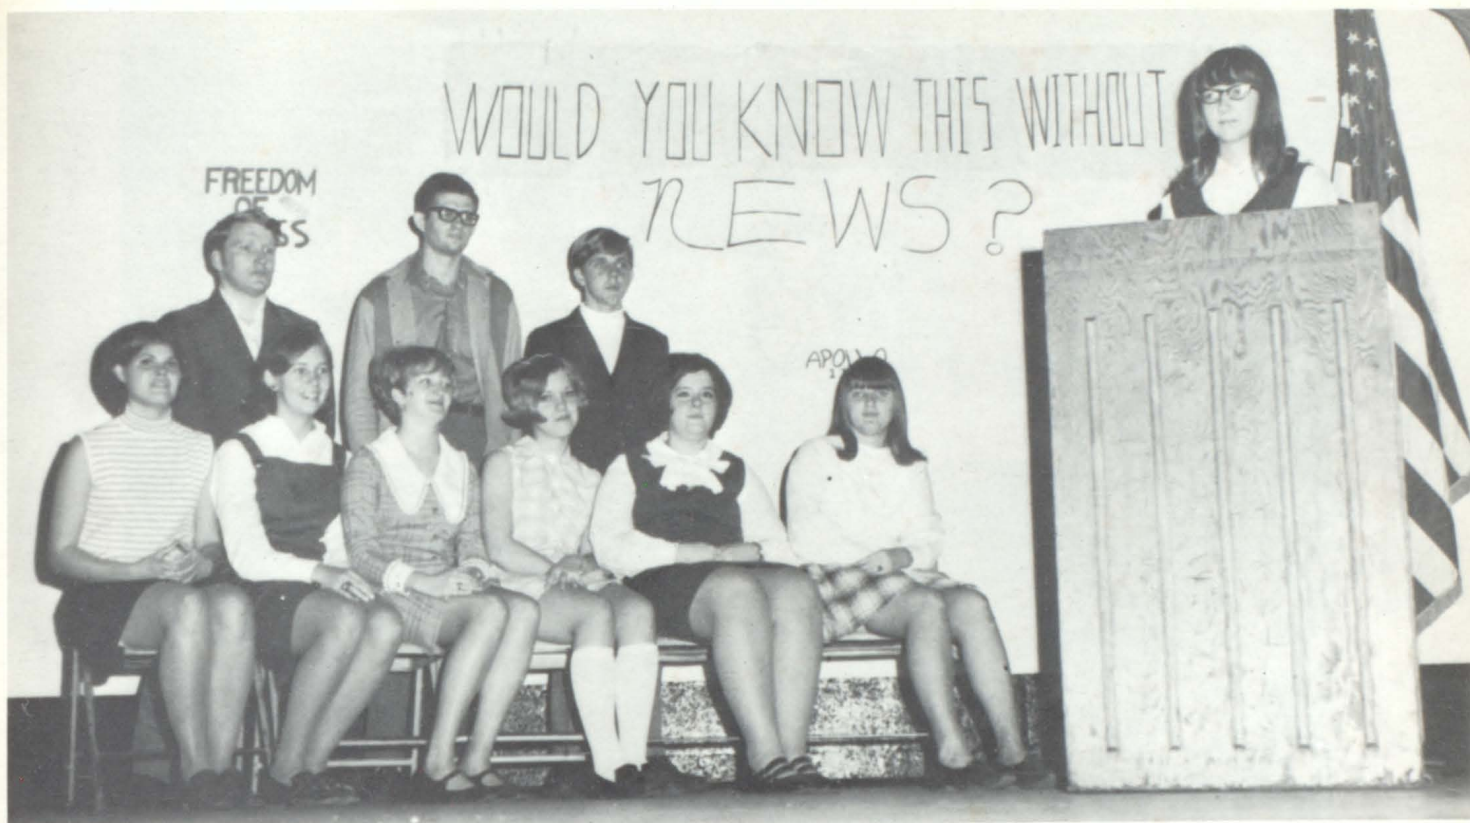

Ronnie Smith, David Harless, and Joe Paynter, review the year's sports.

Publications staffs

Marcella Williamson and David Harless question Woodrow Cook and Attorney General Chauncy Browning concerning their views on youth opportunities.

At Newspaper Week assembly, Editor Marcella Williamson introduces Times staff members. First Row: Debbie Kay Cook, Judy Brooks, Jeanette Cook, Sue Linkous, Donna Dillon, and Debbie Spangler. Second Row: Joe Paynter, Ronnie Jude, and David Harless.

Times staff members put up their Age of Aquarius poster after moving into the old guidance office. At work are Donna Dillon, Joe Paynter, Marcella Williamson, and Debbie Spangler.

Sports editors David Harless and Joe Paynter check track records with Assistant Coach Chester Morgan.

It finally arrives! Teachers prepare to distribute the all-important grade cards to the students.

Another school year ends

Who says teachers aren't glad when school closes? Sharing the joy of the day are Mrs. Jeanette Toler, Mrs. Lillian Cook, and Mrs. Paula Blankenship.

Students have different ways of celebrating the end of school. Wilson Rice joins a friend for a pony ride.
